MEMORANDUM FOR 49er Battalion Cadre, Staff and Cadets

SUBJECT: Battalion Policy # 8, Accountability and Responsibility of Government Property

1. References:

- a. Army Regulation 735-5, Policies and Procedures for Property Accountability, 28 February 2005.
- b. Army Regulation 710-2, Supply Below the National Level, 28 March 2008.
- c. Department of the Army Pamphlet 710-2-1, Using Unit Supply System, 31 December 1997.

2. Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance regarding the responsibility and accountability of government property.

3. Summary: All personnel are required to insure government property is properly used, cared for, issued to, kept safe and disposed of properly. This responsibility is inherent for all personnel to enforce security, safety and accounting requirements of government property. Financial liability investigations will be initiated and presented to the appointing authority whenever property is lost, damaged or destroyed due to a failure to properly document, safeguard, inventory or keep records of government property.
